LEON HESS

Chairman of the Board

"I'm very excited and thankful to have Bill Parcells and his staff leading the Jets," said Leon Hess at a standing room only news conference to announce Parcell's hiring. "I'm thrilled not only for my family and the Jets, but for all the Jets fans."

"He's going to satisfy our fans, bring our team back and have us all at the point where we're proud that we're part of the Jets' family."

It was with those words on February 6, 1997 that Hess began the Bill Parcells era with the New York Jets, launching a rejuvenated feeling of optimism and enthusiasm among Jets fans.

"I was born and brought up in Asbury Park, NJ. I even started in the oil business there," Hess said. "Bill Parcells is in love with Sea Girt, NJ. They're eight miles apart. Seventy years ago as kids in the summertime, at low tide we used to have a rake and a little shovel and we'd go and dig up clams and sell them. The big ones would go for clam chowder at restaurants and the little ones went to clam bars. We were lucky to make 50 or 75 cents a day. Little did I think, that 70 years later, eight miles away in Sea Girt, would be a Tuna. It's all the same ocean. Little did I think the good Lord would favor me in life and I could marry that Tuna."

Hess has continuously sought the finest football facilities for both the players and the fans throughout the years. After citing Shea Stadium as "the NFL's poorest facilities for players and spectators alike," Hess announced plans to move to the Meadowlands prior to the 1984 season. As a result, during the last 13 seasons, thousands of additional Jets fans have had the opportunity to watch NFL football in comfort and safety, in modern surroundings, with proper facilities, adequate parking and good football sightlines.

In addition, Hess has continued to provide the Jets players and staff with outstanding facilities by building an ultra-modern locker room at the Meadowlands and by improving the Weeb Ewbank training complex at Hofstra University with a new indoor air-supported training center, a new Astroturf field, a new grass field, an overhauled weight room and additional offices.

In 1995, Hess was introduced by Joe Namath as Hess was inducted into the New Jersey Sports Hall of Fame along with Giants owner Wellington Mara, former Giants All-Pro tackle Al De Rogatis and former Rutgers FB Paul Robeson. In 1983, Hess was an honored recipient of the Distinguished American Award at the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame dinner. He joined an impressive list of past winners including Vince Lombardi, Bob Hope, Jimmy Stewart, Bill Carpenter and Fr. Theodore Hesburgh.

Hess, the long-time chairman of the board of the Amerada Hess Corporation, handed over the reins of the company to his son John in 1995, and now holds the title of Chairman of the Executive Committee. Hess started building Amerada Hess from his father's 2-truck heating oil delivery business during the 1930's, and took over daily operations of the company after a stint in the Army during World War II where he was responsible for supplying fuel to General George Patton's troops. From those humble beginnings he built a multi-billion dollar oil and gas company with refineries located around the world. He has been the sole owner of the Jets since 1984 and has been actively involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963.

HOW THEY BECAME THE JETS

On March 28, 1963 a five-man syndicate composed of David A. (Sonny) Werblin, Leon Hess, Townsend B. Martin, Donald C. Lillis and Philip H. Iselin purchased the New York Titans of the American Football League for the price of $1 million.

Less than a month later, on April 15, Werblin, the team's president and CEO renamed the team the "Jets". The reasons were twofold. At the time, the United States was entering the "space" or "Jet Age". Commercial airlines were filling the air and soon there would be men walking on the moon. Also, the Jets new stadium, Shea Stadium, would be located in Flushing Meadows, NY between LaGuardia and Idlewild (later renamed John F. Kennedy Airport) Airports. Hence the name, New York Jets.

STEVE GUTMAN

President

"Twenty-four highly qualified men called wanting the (head coaching) job," said Jets president Steve Gutman at a news conference to introduce Bill Parcells as the new Jets head coach. "Leon Hess' sights were set on the superstar we wound up with."

The patience of Gutman and Hess was rewarded with the hiring of Parcells as head coach and chief football operations officer, but it wasn't as easy as it may sound.

Just two weeks earlier, Parcells had guided the New England Patriots to Super Bowl XXXI and was now in a contract dispute with management. He wanted out. The Patriots wanted Parcells to fulfill contract obligations for 1997 as interpreted by the team.

Gutman embarked on a bold plan for the Jets: Install Parcells as a consultant for one year and let him take the reins in 1998. In the meantime, Gutman proposed that Parcells' long-time right-hand man Bill Belichick become the new Jets head coach and bring with him key members of the Parcells staff from New England. On February 3, Gutman made just that announcement to a stunned news conference.

When the Patriots protested, NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue stepped in and both clubs agreed to let the commissioner decide the issue. The commissioner ruled the Patriots would receive compensatory draft choices in 1997, '98 and '99, but the Jets would get their man on the sideline and in charge a year early. Thus, on February 10, Hess and Gutman greeted the new head coach and chief football operations officer.

Gutman was named president on June 14, 1988. He has been with the Jets since 1977. His first 11 seasons were spent serving as the corporate treasurer-secretary and administrative manager. In that role he supervised the daily operation of the club and served on the Board of Directors. He also directed all the Jets fiscal operations including player contract negotiations, tickets and marketing. Gutman has added the responsibilities of the presidency while still directing all of the fiscal and daily operations of the club.

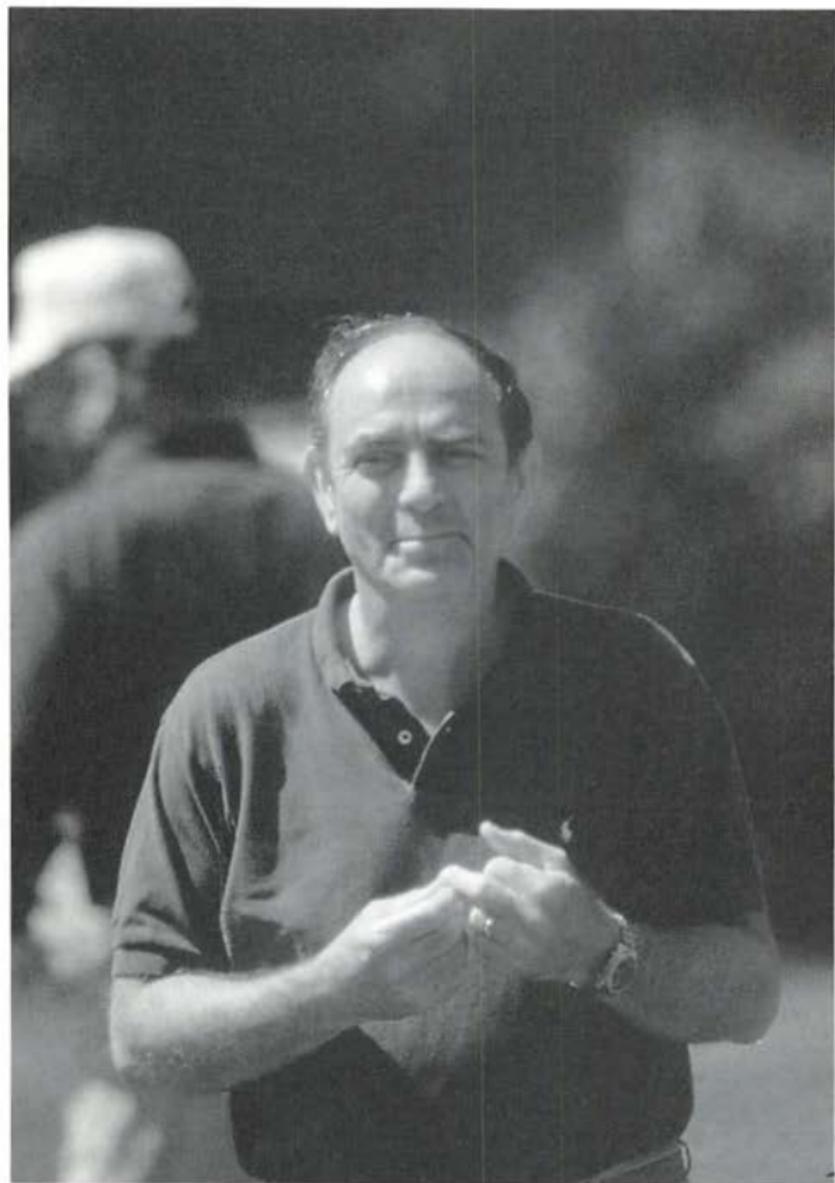

In addition to the busy off-season additions of Parcells and his staff, Gutman also oversaw the Jets' renovation of the year-round training complex at Weeb Ewbank Hall at Hofstra University. The Jets now have a state-of-the-art AstroTurf indoor air-supported facility, as well as two new fields.

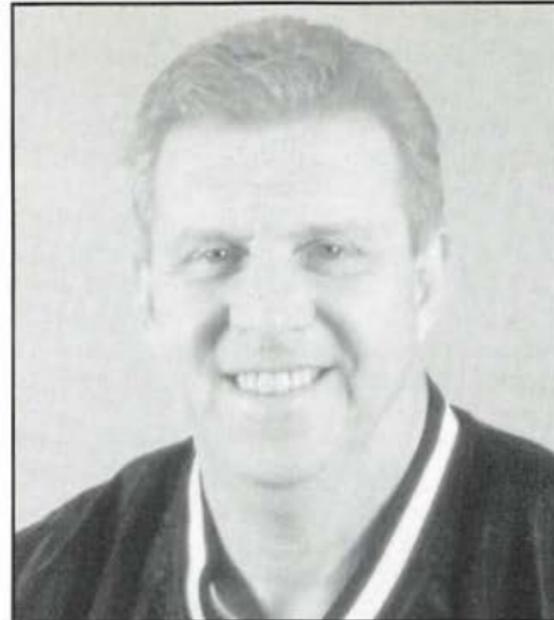

Gutman has been a respected figure around NFL circles. In 1991, he was appointed by Paul Tagliabue to the Management Council Work Group. He serves as economic consultant to the NFLMC during collective bargaining sessions with the NFLPA and has been a member of the players and coaches pension committees. He has also been involved in community and charity projects and has received special recognition from the United Way of New York, the American Red Cross of Nassau and Suffolk counties and the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation for his efforts on their behalf.

Prior to joining the Jets in 1977, Gutman had extensive experience as a financial consultant in areas of securities, research, sales, underwriting, investment banking and management. He received his BS in accounting and MBA in corporate finance from New York University. Gutman was born January 24, 1935 in the Bronx, NY. He and his wife Carol have three children, sons Fred and Rob and daughter Elise.

BILL PARCELLS

Head Coach

Bill Parcells, one of only two coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the Super Bowl, has set his sights on piloting the New York Jets to such lofty heights. As the New York Jets 11th full-time head coach and chief football operations officer, Parcells and his loyal staff of assistants prepare to restore the pride of an organization.

"We're all thrilled," said Jets owner Leon Hess at a standing room only news conference to announce Parcells' hiring. "I'm very excited and thankful to have Bill Parcells and his staff leading the Jets. I'm thrilled not only for my family and the Jets, but for all the Jets fans."

"He's going to satisfy our fans, bring our team back and have us all at the point where we're proud that we're part of the Jets' family."

Parcells, 55, comes back to the region where he grew up and holds with the highest regard. An Oradell, NJ native, Parcells was a member of the first graduating class at River Dell (Oradell) High in 1959, where he starred in basketball, football, and baseball.

"I was born and brought up in Asbury Park, N.J. I even started in the oil business there," Hess said. "Bill Parcells is in love with Sea Girt, N.J. They're eight miles apart. Seventy years ago as kids in the summertime, at low tide we used to have a rake and a little shovel and we'd go in and dig up clams and sell them. The big ones would go for clam chowder at restaurants, and the little ones went to clam bars. We were lucky to make 50 or 75 cents in a day. Little did I think, 70 years later, eight miles away in Sea Girt, would be a Tuna. It's all the same ocean. Little did I think the good Lord would favor me in life and I could marry that Tuna."

"This is my home," said Parcells. "There is something special about doing your job where you grew up, where you're comfortable and where you have great support."

During his 12 seasons as an NFL head coach, Parcells is 119-86-1, including victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV with the New York Giants and an appearance most recently in Super Bowl XXXI with the New England Patriots. His teams have finished in either first or second place eight times in his 12 years.

"I view this as a consummate challenge and hopefully I can revitalize this franchise to the point where we can compete for the championship," Parcells said. "Every place I've been, that's been my goal, to try and compete for the championship and instill in the players the pride to try and do that."

Parcells inherited a Patriots team that went 2-14 in 1992 and, within two years, helped guide the team to a 10-6 mark and its first playoff game in eight years. Then, in his fourth year, the Patriots went 11-5, good for first place in the AFC East and a first round playoff bye, setting up two home playoff wins that put them into the Super Bowl against Green Bay. That accomplishment established Parcells along with Don Shula (Miami & Baltimore) as one of only two coaches to lead different teams to Super Bowls.

In his previous head coaching tenure with the New York Giants, Parcells took over a 4-5 team from the strike-shortened 1982 season and, following a 3-12-1 campaign in 1983, enjoyed a remarkable run of 9, 10, 14, 10, 12, and 13-win seasons between 1984 and 1990 that saw the Giants capture two Super Bowls, three division titles, and have only one losing year. Parcells won NFL Coach of the Year honors in 1986 and 1989.

Parcells is the fourth winningest active coach with 119 victories, trailing only Dan Reeves, Marv Levy and Marty Schottenheimer. He and Jimmy Johnson are the only active coaches to have claimed two Super Bowls.

Prior to engineering a championship football atmosphere in New England, Parcells spent two years as an analyst for NBC Sports, serving in roles ranging from studio host to color commentator. Given medical clearance by his physicians, Parcells resumed his coaching career in New England, on January 21, 1993.

He began his coaching career in 1964 as a defensive assistant at Hastings College (NE). He returned to Wichita State in 1965 as a defensive line coach before returning east to coach at Army. After four years at West Point (1966-69), Parcells left for stints at Florida State, Vanderbilt, and Texas Tech. His first head coaching position came at the Air Force Academy in 1978. It was then on to the NFL, as Parcells joined Ray Perkins' staff with the Giants as an assistant in 1979. He moved briefly for one season to the Patriots in 1980 as linebackers' coach on current Jets' quarterbacks coach and special assistant Ron Erhardt's staff before returning to the Giants as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, the position he held until taking over as head coach in 1983.

Born August 22, 1941, in Englewood, NJ, Parcells recently built a house in Sea Girt, NJ. He and his wife, Judith have three daughters—Suzy, Jill and Dallas, and two grandchildren, Kyle and Kendall.

BELICHICK

The Defense Department
1st Season with Jets/23rd in NFL
12th with Bill Parcells

Bill Belichick, the Jets' assistant head coach and secondary coach, comes to the Green and White with plans of being part of a system that will lead the Jets into the 21st century.

"I'm hoping this is as long-term as it gets," he said. "I want the players and the fans of the New York Jets to know that we're in this for the long-haul. We have a program that has proven to work and we are going to implement that program here."

The upcoming season will be Belichick's 23rd year in the National Football League and his 9th in the American Football Conference.

"I think everyone has to understand this is a program and a program extends beyond one person," Belichick said. "I think I will have to earn their respect here and I will do that. If a player wants to be part of the system, he'll jump in and do it."

BELICHICK (continued)

Belichick, 44, the former head coach of the Cleveland Browns, comes to the Jets after having served as assistant head coach under Bill Parcells for the New England Patriots during the 1996 season, in which the Patriots captured the AFC Championship and fell to the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XXXI.

His units are notoriously strong late in games, as evidenced by the Patriots 9-0 mark when leading after three quarters this past season. Belichick's swarming, hustling defensive units are annually among the leaders in big hits, interceptions and playmakers.

"I'm a strong believer in getting around the ball and trying to make things happen," he said. "When you have guys flying around and sticking their noses in there, good things are bound to happen."

Belichick played football, lacrosse and squash while attending college at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn. On the football field, he played center and tight end for the Cardinals during his three varsity seasons. The three-sport athlete finished his lacrosse career with 10 goals and 21 assists and was named the team's captain his senior year.

Belichick was born April 16, 1952 in Nashville, Tenn., and was raised in Annapolis, Md. He was a standout prep athlete at Annapolis High School, where he has since been enshrined into the school's Hall of Fame. He attended Phillips Academy before enrolling at Wesleyan University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics, graduating in 1975. While in Cleveland, Belichick and his wife began the Bill and Debby Belichick Charity Foundation and in just three years they helped raise over $125,000 for the Zelma George Home, a shelter for homeless women and children in Cleveland. Bill and Debby have three children, Amanda, 12, Stephen, 10, and Brian, 5.

TODD HALEY

Offensive Assistant/Quality Control
3rd Season with Jets/3rd in NFL
1st with Bill Parcells

If having strong NFL roots is any indication, Todd Haley will be a valuable addition to Bill Parcells' coaching staff.

HALEY (continued)

First hired in 1995 as an assistant in the Jets' scouting department under his immensely respected father, Dick, Haley moves into the coaching ranks this season. He will work closely with the offensive staff, breaking down game and practice tapes while assisting in game plan preparation.

With the ability to evaluate both the skill and intangibles of players, Haley, 30, possesses an excellent working knowledge of the pro game and the inner workings of the NFL. As a child, he had the unique opportunity to witness first-hand the success of some of the all-time stories teams. A Pittsburgh native, Haley, observed while his father (then the Steelers' director of player personnel) helped assemble the great Steeler Super Bowl teams of the 70s.

Some of his most vivid memories were born on the Steelers' sideline, where he performed duties as a waterboy and ballboy from ages 9-18 — also attending many victory parties to celebrate the Steelers' four Super Bowl triumphs.

Before working for the Jets, Haley was a golf pro at the Woodcrest Country Club in Syosset, NY and the Burning Tree Golf Club in Bethesda, MD. A solid collegiate golfer, he participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his years at the University of Florida and University of Miami, from 1985-1990.

Haley and his wife Chrissy are the proud parents of daughter Taylor, 1.

1996 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

at DENVER 31, JETS 6 (70,595)

GAME ONE—Mile High Stadium, September 1, 1996-Sunny, hot. The Jets 1996 season debuted without the team's two starting offensive tackles, LT John Elliott (groin) and RT David Williams (back), and watched as the Broncos struck early and often on both offense and defense. The Broncos scored on the 1st time they had possession on a 13-yard TD pass from John Elway to TE Shannon Sharpe. They then exploded for 24 2nd quarter points, 17 coming after the Jets' turnovers, and the game was as good as over as they roared ahead 31-0 at the half. The Jets held Denver in check the rest of the way and did manage a Frank Reich 13-yard TD pass to Webster Slaughter with 2:07 remaining in the contest. Denver sacked QB Neil O'Donnell, who was working behind a makeshift line featuring 4 guards, 8 times and recovered a pair of fumbles and made one interception. They turned the interception into a 64-yard scoring drive, turned the first fumble into a 1-play, 26-yard TD on a reverse by Anthony Miller, and generated a 28-yard Jason Elam FG after a 1-yard drive with the second fumble. New York's defense regrouped in the 2nd half and made 1 interception and recovered a fumble, but the offense couldn't consistently move the ball until the final minutes of the game.

GAME TWO—Giants Stadium, September 8, 1996-Overcast, humid. While a thunderstorm interrupted play in the Jets-Colts game for 32 minutes, it didn't stop the Colts from beating the Jets 21-7 en route to their first 2-0 start since 1977. The Jets fell to 0-2 as 3 of their 2nd half rallies fell short, one at the Colts' 33 with a punt, one at the Colts' 4-yard line with a fumble and the last in the end zone with an interception. Indianapolis jumped to a 7-0 lead as Marshall Faulk completed a 54-yard drive with a 1-yard TD run. Jim Harbaugh engineered a 92-yard, 6-play TD drive to give the Colts a 14-0 lead with 2 big passes to TE Ken Dilger—51-yards down the sideline and the final 22 for the score. The Jets bounced right back with Keyshawn Johnson grabbing his first NFL touchdown on an 11-yard pass from Neil O'Donnell just before the half. Before the storm hit in the 4th quarter, Harbaugh again proved the difference as he ran 12 yards for a TD on a QB draw giving Indy a 20-7 lead. Cary Blanchard missed the PAT, but was run into and made the 2nd try successful for a 21-7 margin. O'Donnell drove the Jets to the C 12 and hit TE Kyle Brady at the C4, but Brady fumbled when hit by David Tate and the Colts snuffed out the Jets' hopes at the C1. The Jets tried to come back one more time, but O'Donnell was picked off at the goal line by Ray Buchanan preserving the Colts' victory. Harbaugh was sharp with 15-20-242-0-1 TD and ran for a 12-yard score. Dilger set a receiving record for a Colts' TE with 7-156-1 TD. O'Donnell was 26-46-319-1-1. Wayne Chrebet led the Jets receivers with 7-93 while Keyshawn Johnson had his first TD with 5-53. The Jets had 15 penalties for 100 yards, 8 against the special teams. Four times the Jets started from inside their own 10-yard line.

at MIAMI 36, JETS 27 (68,137)

GAME THREE—Pro Player Stadium, September 15, 1996-Sunny, hot. The Jets broke on top 14-0 in the 2nd quarter, but Miami came back with 33 unanswered points and then staved off a 4th quarter Jets rally for a 36-27 victory in the heat of Pro Player Stadium. After a scoreless 1st quarter, LCB Aaron Glenn picked off Dan Marino in a Jets' goal line stand and raced a club record 100-yards for a score. Neil O'Donnell and Webster Slaughter then combined on a 30-yard TD strike and New York led 14-0. The lead was brief, however, as Miami struck on the next play with a 74-yard Marino to Stanley Pritchett TD and tied it with 1:47 left in the half when Karim Abdul-Jabbar scored on a 4-yard run. The Dolphins continued unabated scoring 33 unanswered points and were seemingly in control of the game with a 33-14 lead with only 9:22 left on the clock. But the Jets came back to get to within 6 points, until Miami put the game out of reach with a final 29-yard FG at the 1:45 mark. After Miami went ahead 33-14, O'Donnell hit WR Jeff Graham, who sped 78-yards for a TD aided by Keyshawn Johnson's peel back block. New York's 2-point conversion run by Adrian Murrell came up short, but the Jets' Victor Green caused an Irving Spikes fumble setting the scene for an O'Donnell 4th and 29 high, lofted pass in the end zone to Johnson dropping the margin to 33-27 with 4:52 left. The Jets depleted defense, minus 6 starters including a broken ankle suffered by DE Hugh Douglas, couldn't stop the Dolphins, who iced the game with the final FG. Marino had another big day against the Jets and enjoyed his 35th birthday with 13-23-257-1 INT-3 TD. Miami struggled with its running game early netting only 35 yards in the 1st half, but Abdul-Jabbar (23-124) and Spikes (15-64) banged out 195 yards on the ground. O'Donnell had his 2nd straight 300-yard game with 25-44-325 and 3 TD, tying his personal high. The O'Donnell-Graham TD was the longest by the Jets since 1986.

NY GIANTS 13 at JETS 6 (58,339)

GAME FOUR—Giants Stadium, September 22, 1996-Rain, Mild. The Giants won the battle of the Meadowlands and escaped being the only 0-4 team at Giants Stadium with a 13-6 defeat of the home-standing Jets in a game played in a consistent rain. Both teams' defenses dominated the day, but the Giants scored the game's only touchdown late in the 2nd quarter to overtake a 3-0 Jets lead and when the Green and White closed to 7-6 in the 3rd quarter, the Giants put them away with a pair of Brad Daluiso 20-yard FG in the 4th quarter. The Jets drew first blood on Nick Lowery's 46-yard FG, but the Giants managed the only TD drive of the day going 80 yards in 11 plays with Dave Brown hooking up with Chris Calloway on a 17-yard TD play. The Jets' Marvin Washington forced a Rodney Hampton fumble which the Jets turned into a 39-yard FG, narrowing the gap to 7-6 midway in the 3rd quarter. It looked as if the Giants might put the Jets away for good when a pass interference call gave them a 1st and goal at the Jets 1, but the Jets' goal-line stand forced a 20-yard FG. The Giants came back again, aided by a pair of personal foul calls against the Jets, driving to the Jets' 3, but the Jets defense held and the Giants were forced to settle for another 20-yard FG. That proved to be enough and the Giants defense forced the Jets to go 3 and out and then stopped them on 4 downs punctuating the final stop with a sack at the Jets' 11-yard line.

GAME FIVE—RFK Stadium, September 29, 1996-Clear, mild. The Jets had their most consistent offensive outing of the season, but had to settle for 3 FG in the scoring area and got hurt by 2 so-called "trick plays" by the Redskins as they fell for the 5th straight week at WAS 31-16 in a game marred by controversy. With the Redskins holding on to an 8 point lead, 24-16, the Jets had an apparent TD called back by the officials for 2 reasons—1st, a pass interference call against the receiver Keyshawn Johnson and then later a ruling of an INT by WAS DB Tom Carter. After about a 10-minute delay in the game for officials' conferences, the Redskins took over at their own 20 and drove the length of the field for the put-away TD and the victory. The Jets and the Redskins traded 1st half TD and FG and were tied at 10-10 when the Jets' 2-minute drill netted a 13-10 lead on Nick Lowery's 2nd of 3 FG, a 35-yarder with 8 seconds. WAS answered right back on its 1st possession of the 2nd half with Terry Allen's 8-yard TD run for a 17-13 lead and was never caught. New York closed to 17-16 on Lowery's 33-yard FG, and then Gus Frerotte and Leslie Shepherd hooked up on a 52-yard flea flicker for a TD and a 24-16 lead at 14:53 of the 4th quarter. Earlier Shepherd had scored WAS 1st TD on a 12-yard end around run. The Jets came right back at the Redskins marching from their own 23 to a 1st and goal at the WR3 with 8:01 remaining, when Johnson made an apparent leaping catch of Neil O'Donnell's "Alley Oop" pass, but that was the play that was later ruled to be an interception halting the Jets' chances to tie the game. Adrian Murrell led the Jets rushing attack with career-highs of 31-132-1 TD, NY's 1st rushing TD in 8 games. O'Donnell was 27-40-292-0 TD-1 INT while Frerotte was 15-22-257-1 TD-0 INT. Allen, with 47 yards in the last drive, was 20-101-2 TD. NY had 427 yards of total offense and had 78 plays, 30 more than Washington and a T.O.P. of 37:18.

GAME SIX—Giants Stadium, October 6, 1996-Sunny, Clear. The Oakland Raiders broke open a tight 13-6 game in the 3rd quarter with 21 4th quarter points to leave the Jets winless after their first 6 games, 34-13. The loss proved to be even more painful than the final verdict for the Jets as they lost starting quarterback Neil O'Donnell for 4-6 weeks with a separated shoulder and also saw Webster Slaughter sidelined 3-4 weeks with a pulled hamstring. The club was already under siege with 3 number 1 draft choices and impact players Marvin Jones (knee), Keyshawn Johnson (knee) and Hugh Douglas (ankle) out for extended periods of time. After the two teams exchanged 2nd quarter field goals, the Raiders moved to 10-3 lead on a 23-yard TD pass from Jeff Hostetler to TE Rickey Dudley. New York, with Frank Reich replacing O'Donnell at QB, got 2 more 1st half scoring opportunities, but first had a missed 45-yard FG and then saw Reich picked off. The Raiders turned that theft into their own 35-yard FG and a 13-3 lead with 21 seconds left in the 1st stanza. The Jets came out of the locker room at the half and quickly moved from their own 36 to the OR 5 for a 1st and goal situation, but on 4th down had to settle for only 3 points and still trailed 13-6. The 24-yard FG was a milestone for Nick Lowery as he tied Jan Stenerud's NFL career record for field goals at 373. The Raiders increased their lead to 20-6 on Hostetler's 2nd TD pass of the game, but the Jets were still in it as they drove to the OR 25, but Reich was again picked off and the Raiders were about to put the game away. Hostetler threw his 3rd TD pass of the day and his 2nd to Dudley and Joe Aska broke a 30-yard TD run sandwiched around a 3-yard TD pass from Reich to rookie Alex Van Dyke for a final margin of 34-13. Aska had a career high of 21-136-1 TD while Adrian Murrell had the 1st back-to-back 100-yard rushing performance for the Jets since Freeman McNeil in 1987.

GAME SEVEN—Jacksonville Municipal Stadium, October 13, 1996-Partly cloudy, warm. The Jets saw a 14-3 2nd-quarter lead slip away and then had a 4th-quarter comeback come up short when a 36-yard field goal attempt went awry and 4 pass attempts from the Jacksonville 31-yard line fell incomplete losing their 7th straight to the Jaguars, 21-7. The Jaguars struck quickly with a 35-yard FG following a 73-yard return of the opening kickoff, but the Jets jumped ahead 14-3 on a pair of Frank Reich TD passes for 14 yards to Adrian Murrell and 12 yards to Wayne Chrebet. The Jaguars tied it at 14 with a 40-yard FG and a 15-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith. The Jets had a chance to take the lead before the half, but Dave Thomas picked off Reich at the JAX 24-yard line with 20 seconds remaining. The Jaguars took the lead in the 3rd quarter on Brunell's 41-yard TD pass to Willie Jackson when the Jets secondary got tangled in coverage. The Jets drove to the JAX 3 yard line, but were forced to settle for only 3 points on Nick Lowery's historic 20-yard FG. That kick with 10:59 left in the game moved him into the NFL record books for the most career field goals—374, surpassing Jan Stenerud. The Jets defense forced the Jaguars to punt and New York was knocking at the door again driving to the JAX 18, but the snap on Lowery's 36-yard attempt was low and the kick missed just left. Once again the defense forced another punt, but this time the Jets needed a TD to win. They got a 32-yard diving catch and run by Chrebet that put the ball at the JAX 31 with 1:17 left. But 4 passes fell incomplete and the Jaguars held on for victory. Chrebet had a brilliant day with 12 catches for 162 yards, the most by any Jet since Al Toon was 14-181 in 1988. Reich was 23-43-276-2-2 as he started for the injured Neil O'Donnell. Brunell was 14-23-0-2 TD and Smith was 5-135-1 TD. The Jets lost starting C Dave Alexander for the season with a torn ACL in his left knee.

BUFFALO 25 at JETS 22 (49,775)

GAME EIGHT—Giants Stadium, October 20, 1996- Overcast, cool. You don't rank losses by how tough they are to swallow, but Sunday's 25-22 loss to the Bills has to rank with one of the most heart-breaking of the season. The Jets led 15-9 in the 4th quarter, but twice lost fumbles leading to 10 Buffalo points. Then with only 2:54 remaining and no time outs, Frank Reich drove the Jets 80 yards in 9 plays and hooked up with Wayne Chrebet on a 21-yard diving catch for the tying score. But the Bills still had 1:37 left on the clock and Jim Kelly moved his team to the Jets' 29-yard line where Steve Christie nailed a 47-yard FG with 10 seconds left for the victory. The Jets scored on their opening drive for the first time this year for a 7-0 lead as Reich teamed with Keyshawn Johnson for a 16-yard TD. The Jets defense kept denying the Bills from the end zone, but Buffalo took a 9-7 3rd quarter lead on Christie's 3rd FG. The Jets got a 40-yard pass play from Frank Reich to Richie Anderson taking them to the Buffalo 26, but on 2nd down a fumble on a missed exchange on a hand-off kept the Jets without any points. But the Jets got the ball back on the next series when Mark Gunn sacked Kelly to force a fumble and Bobby Hamilton recovered the ball at the BB 9. Then it was Reich and Johnson again. Back only 17 days after arthroscopic knee surgery for torn cartilage, Johnson out-muscled Jeff Burris for a 9-yard catch in the end zone giving the Jets a 15-9. The Bills chipped away with another Christie FG to make it 15-12 and then got a gift when the center snap went through Reich's hands and was recovered by the Bills at the Jets' 5-yard line. NY's defense couldn't stop the Bills this time and on 3rd down they finally got a TD for a 19-15 lead. Burris, who recovered Reich's fumble, then made another big play with an interception leading to Christie's 5th FG, a 33-yarder and a 22-15

JETS 31 at ARIZONA 21 (28,088)

GAME NINE—Sun Devil Stadium, October 27, 1996- Clear, cool. The Jets finally got the monkey off their backs...one that could have been described as the size of King Kong, as they held on to defeat the Cardinals at Arizona 31-21 snapping a 12-game losing streak, 8 of the losses coming this season. "We had a couple of situations that, in the previous eight games, we would have screwed up and found a way to lose," said Rich Kotite. "But we hung in there. It was a great effort by the offensive line and Adrian (Murrell)." The Jets built a 17-0 halftime lead on a Nick Lowery 37-yard FG, a 34-yard flea-flicker TD pass from Frank Reich to a wide-open Keyshawn Johnson and a 1-yard run by Richie Anderson culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive. The Cardinals came back time and again in the 2nd half, but the Jets counter punched and Adrian Murrell delivered the knockout punch with a 78-yard run leading to the final TD. Arizona gave the Jets a shot of their own medicine with a 69-yard flea-flicker from Kent Graham to ex-Jet Rob Moore setting up a Larry Centers 1-yard TD reception. When Murrell lost a fumble at the Jets' 15-yard line, Graham again connected with Centers, this time with a 2-yard TD pass and the score was down to 17-14. New York then put together its best drive of the season, a 90-yard, 13-play march ending with Murrell's 1-yard TD run. But the Jets didn't get any breathing room as rookie Leeland McElroy returned the ensuing kickoff 92 yards to the Jets' 8-yard line and 2 plays later Graham hit Moore with a 6-yard TD pass narrowing the gap to 24-21 and the Jets were on the brink of seeing their 17-point margin go by the wayside. But on 1st down from their own 20, Murrell, behind key blocks by David Williams and Kyle Brady, got outside and raced 78 yards to the A2 setting up Reggie Cobb's 2-yard dash for the TD and a 31-21 lead. Lonnie Young nailed down the victory when he intercepted Graham in the end zone. Murrell's 78-yard knockout punch helped give him a club record breaking rushing performance of 199 yards (31 carries) eclipsing Freeman McNeil's 1985 mark of 192. Johnson was 7-94 with his 5th TD of the season. Reich was 22-31-254-2 INT-1 TD and helped the Jets convert 10 of 14 3rd down situations.

GAME TEN—Giants Stadium, November 10, 1996-The game came down to a 4th and 2 for the Patriots at their own 49-yard line with about 6:00 remaining and trailing 27-24. They made the 1st down on a controversial spot and went on to score a TD and defeat the Jets 31-27 at the Meadowlands. New York jumped out to a 21-0 lead and came within inches of another pick-off before the Patriots scored their 1st TD narrowing the margin to 21-7. The Jets answered right back by driving to the NE 30, but Frank Reich's pass was just over the fingertips of Jeff Graham alone in the end zone and then Nick Lowery was wide right on his 48-yard FG attempt giving the Patriots needed life. New York had built its lead on Reich's 26-yard TD pass to Graham on the opening 80-yard drive, on Adrian Murrell's 1-yard run culminating a 29-yard drive set up by Chad Cascadden's sack and forced fumble of Drew Bledsoe and Murrell's 2nd rushing TD completing a 9-play, 60-yard march. The Patriots, the highest scoring team in the NFL, wouldn't be denied in the 2nd half. They knotted it at 24-24 with a pair of TD and a FG as the Jets had to settle for a Lowery FG. With the score tied, the Jets drove to a 1st down at the NE 16, but had to again resort to a Lowery 32-yard FG for a 27-24 4th-quarter lead. The Patriots then got the ball at their own 41 and that's when they went for it on 4th and 2 and came away with a 1st down keeping their drive alive. Bledsoe, who was 24-34-297-2 INT and 3-TD on the day, then drove the Pats to the Jets' 2-yard line where he hit Keith Byars for what proved to be the winning score. With only 3:52 remaining, the Jets took over at their own 24 and drove to the NE 11, but 4-straight Reich passes fell incomplete and the Patriots held on for a 31-27 victory. Reich was 22-44-281-1-1 and Murrell had his 2nd-straight 100-yard day with 31-128-2 TD.

JETS 29 at INDIANAPOLIS 34 (48,322)

GAME ELEVEN—RCA Dome, November 17, 1996—For the 2nd-straight week and for the 3rd time in the last 5 games, the Jets had a chance to pull out a victory on their last series, but again they came up empty and fell to 1-10 losing at Indianapolis, 34-29. Frank Reich's Hail Mary pass was actually grabbed by Keyshawn Johnson in the end zone, but a bevy of Colts defenders stripped the ball away before Johnson could get both feet on the ground. The Jets took a 29-26 4th quarter lead on Reich's 3rd TD pass of the day to Jeff Graham, but the Colts came back with a safety and a pair of Cary Blanchard field goals of 37 and 50 yards to build what turned out to be the final margin. The Jets produced 419 yards and Reich and Graham had career days, but the team was done in by 5 turnovers which the Colts turned into 16 3rd quarter points. After the 2 teams traded 1st quarter FG, Indianapolis took a 10-3 lead. New York countered with the 1st of Reich's TD passes to Graham, a 52-yarder, but Nick Lowery's PAT was blocked and the Jets trailed 10-9. Reich and Graham connected again with only 26 seconds left in the half, but the 2-point try failed and the Jets now led 15-10. Disaster struck the Jets in the 3rd quarter. First, the Colts recovered Adrian Murrell's fumble at the NY27 and turned it into a TD and a 16-15 lead as their 2-point try failed. Then CB Eugene Daniel intercepted Reich and raced 35 yards for the TD and a 23-15 lead. The Jets came back with a 72-yard drive and Murrell's 1-yard run on 4th down brought them to 23-21 as their 2nd 2-point attempt failed. The Colts turned another Reich interception into a 49-yard Blanchard FG for a 26-21 margin. That's when Reich and Graham teamed up for the 3rd time on a 32-yard TD pass. This time Reich's 2-point pass to Johnson was good and with 14:12 left in the 4th quarter the Jets led for the final time, 29-26. Reich was 20-42-352-3 TD-4 INT setting a personal high for yards and INT thrown and tying his career best for TD passes. Graham set a career high for TD receptions, tied his personal best for catches and fell 3 yards shy of his most receiving yards with 9-189-3 TD. The Colts produced 2 offensive and 1 defensive TD, got a safety and 4 FG of 50, 49, 37 and 25 yards and never had to drive more than 54 yards for a score.

JETS 10 at BUFFALO 35 (60,854)

GAME TWELVE—Rich Stadium, November 24, 1996—In 4 of the last 5 Jets losses, the team has come within a last possession score of winning, but at Buffalo, the wings fell off early and the Jets fell for the 3rd straight week and for the 11th time in 12 outings as the Bills continued as the AFC East's best, 35-10. The trouble started early for the Green and White. They took control on the 1st possession of the game and drove to the Buffalo 2-yard line, but a false start KO'd their chances for a touchdown and they had to settle for a Nick Lowery 25-yard FG. The Bills roared right back when Steve Tasker turned a 5-yard catch into a 62-yard play. The Jets defense then stiffened and stopped the Bills, but 2 defensive penalties gave Buffalo new life and Jim Kelly hit Andre Reed for a 7-3 lead. It looked as if the Jets were going to overcome their early problem as they answered right back by driving to the B27, but Frank Reich was intercepted ending the Jets scoring until the 4th quarter when Reich engineered a 98-yard drive culminated by his 18-yard TD pass to Jeff Graham. In between the Bills took advantage of 4 more Jets turnovers with Kelly and Reed combining on a 22-yard TD pass and Kelly and Tasker teaming up on a 19-yard score. When Kelly left with a pulled hamstring on the pass to Tasker, Todd Collins took over and he too found Tasker for an 18-yard TD pass for a commanding 28-3 3rd quarter lead. After the Jets fought their way for a score on their 98-yard drive, the Bills took 17 seconds to answer back when Eric Moulds returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for the final margin of 35-10. Buffalo lost RB Thurman Thomas in the 1st quarter with a bruised knee. Adrian Murrell became the 1st Jet since Freeman McNeil in 1985 to reach the 1000-yard mark as he gained 103 yards giving him 1041 for the season. Graham became the 1st receiver to gain over 100 yards against Buffalo this year with 7-124-1 TD.

HOUSTON 35 at JETS 10 (21,731)

GAME THIRTEEN—Giants Stadium, December 1, 1996—Rainy, cool. "In all aspects of the game—offense and defense—we just didn't compete with them," said Jets head coach Rich Kotite following the Jets 35-10 defeat to the Houston Oilers. The game got away from the Jets quickly as the Oilers jumped to a 14-0 1st quarter lead on a pair of Steve McNair TD passes of 23 yards to Frank Wycheck and 83 yards to Chris Sanders, the longest play from scrimmage allowed by the Jets since 1975. The Jets got a 2nd-quarter 30-yard FG from Nick Lowery and matched Eddie George's 35-yard TD run with an 18-yard TD pass from Frank Reich to Keyshawn Johnson and were in position to get back in the game, but 2 3rd quarter fumble exchanges of the snap from center at Houston's 45-yard line doomed them. Houston added 2 more 4th quarter touchdowns for the final toll. The Jets' problems actually took place before the game got started when Neil O'Donnell, who was supposed to be making his return from a separated shoulder, pulled a calf muscle in the team warmups and was lost for the game, and possibly the season. The team's record combined with the weather kept 55,985 fans from using their tickets, a record for the Jets. George was 28-141 to lead Houston's rushing attack which pounded out 243 yards.

JETS 10 at NEW ENGLAND 34 (54,621)

GAME FOURTEEN—Foxboro Stadium, December 8, 1996—It was more of the same for the Jets—a pair of interceptions and a botched punt play after a high snap from center led to 17 points for the Patriots and the Jets went down to defeat for the 13th time this season as the New England Patriots won 34-10 at Foxboro. The victory clinched a playoff spot for Bill Parcells' team. Glenn Foley got his 1st NFL start and threw his 1st NFL TD pass, a 4-yarder to Keyshawn Johnson. But it wasn't enough to overcome the Patriots, who picked off Foley on the Jets' 1st possession at the NY26 and produced a Drew Bledsoe 2-yard TD pass to Ben Coates and then added a FG for a 10-0 2nd quarter lead. The Jets cut the margin to 10-3 on Nick Lowery's 27-yard 2nd quarter FG, but the Patriots answered back with Curtis Martin's 19-yard TD run and then tacked on a 41-yard FG with 2 seconds left in the half for a 20-3 lead as they capitalized on the errant snap on the punt. The Jets got back into the game as Foley marched the club 60-yards in 7 plays ending with his toss to Johnson, who set a club rookie record with his 7th TD catch. But the back-breaker came shortly after that when Ty Law jumped in front of a Foley pass and returned it 38-yards for the TD and a 27-10 lead. New England wrapped it up in the 4th quarter with the final TD. Foley, who was returning to where he enjoyed great success as a college player at nearby Boston College, was 22-45-227-2 INT-1 TD. Bledsoe was 24-42-251-1 and Martin added 21-94-1 rushing. New England held Adrian Murrell to a season-low 12 for 30 yards rushing.

PHILADELPHIA 21 at JETS 20 (29,178)

GAME FIFTEEN—Giants Stadium, December 14, 1996- The Jets defense almost earned the Jets their 2nd victory of the season, but it was the 5 turnovers that again told the story as the Jets lost to the Philadelphia Eagles 21-20 at the Meadowlands. The Jets' defense made 4 take-aways which all produced scores and gave the Green and White leads of 10-0 at the half and 20-7 in the 4th quarter, but the final nail was driven in the ground when Mike Zordich stepped in front of a Glenn Foley pass in the flat to FB Richie Anderson at the J25 and returned to the J18 setting up Ty Detmer's 14-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar giving Philly the win. The victory earned the Eagles a trip to the playoffs and the loss coupled with the Saints' win over the Giants the next day, gave the Jets the No. 1 selection in the draft for the 2nd year in a row. New York jumped to a 7-0 lead when Marcus Coleman's INT set up a 46-yard flea-flicker TD pass from Foley to Keyshawn Johnson. Three series later Bobby Houston's forced fumble and recovery of Ricky Watters' bobble led to a 10-0 lead on Nick Lowery's 27-yard FG. The Jets couldn't take advantage of excellent field position at their own 46 when the Eagles picked off Foley setting up the 1st of Detmer's TD passes to Fryar—this one of 40 yards narrowed the lead to 3 points. But Aaron Glenn soon upped the New York lead to 17-7 when he grabbed Detmer's pass for Fryar and raced 13-yards untouched into the Eagles end zone. On the next Philly series, LB Chad Cascadden sacked Detmer and Hugh Douglas, who had 3 sacks in the game, recovered the fumble at the P28 setting up Lowery's 29-yard FG for a 20-7 lead with 0:03 left in the 3rd quarter. The Eagles then mounted their only drive of the game marching 80-yards in 9 plays to chop the NY lead to 20-14 with 7:04 left in the game. Two plays later Zordich took in Foley's pass setting up the Eagle victory. New York had 1 more opportunity but a dropped pass at the P15 was followed by the 4th Eagle interception at the P29 and the game was essentially over.

MIAMI 31 at JETS 28 (49,933)

GAME SIXTEEN—Giants Stadium, December 22, 1996—Two days after head coach Rich Kotite stepped aside, he coached his final game as head coach of the New York Jets. In an intensely played game, the Jets jumped out to a 14-point lead, watched as the Dolphins tied the game early in the third quarter and then the lead changed hands twice before the Dolphins managed to pull out a 31-28 victory. The Jets started out quickly on defense as DT Matt Brock burst past a blocker on the Dolphins second possession and sacked QB Dan Marino, stripping him of the football. DE Hugh Douglas pounced on the ball and streaked 62-yards for the TD (his first TD in the NFL) to give the Jets a 7-0 lead. The defense then forced Miami to go 3 plays and out and then methodically drove 84 yards in 11 plays, highlighted by two big plays between QB Glenn Foley and WR Webster Slaughter, a 24-yard juggling catch and a deep pass to Slaughter, who had beat the defensive back, forcing him to interfere with Slaughter in the endzone, setting up Adrian Murrell's 1-yard plunge for the TD. The Dolphins battled back to score a TD on the last play from scrimmage in the first half as Marino hit WR O.J. McDuffie on a 1-yard pass to cut the Jets lead to 14-7. Miami came out and scored on their second possession in the 3rd quarter, as Marino hooked up with WR Fred Barnett on a 33-yard catch and run TD. The Jets answered right back as Foley directed a 7 play, 56-yard drive, culminated by TE Kyle Brady's first TD reception of the year, an 11-yarder on 3rd and goal, putting the Jets up 21-14. The Dolphins then went 78 yards in 8 plays, highlighted by Marino passes to TE Troy Drayton (15 and 14 yards) and capped by Karim Abdul-Jabbar's 1-yard run to knot the score at 21. K Joe Nedney then gave the Dolphins their first lead of the day with a 37-yard FG and built their lead to 10 points when Marino guided a 74-yard, 10 play drive topped off with a 50-yard TD strike to WR Randal Hill. The Jets, led by reserve QB Frank Reich answered with a 9-yard TD pass to WR Wayne Chrebet to narrow the gap to 31-28. The Jets defense forced the Dolphins to go three and out and give the ball back to the Jets with 3:41 on the clock. But a Reich to Chrebet 14-yard gain went for naught as Chrebet was stripped of the ball at the Miami 49 yard line and the Dolphins then ran the clock, and the Jets 1-15 season, out.

HALL OF FAMERS

WEBB EW BANK

HEAD COACH (1963-73)
GENERAL MANAGER (1963-74)

Weeb Ewbank is the only head coach to build 2 teams from their inception into world champions and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978. Upon his retirement, Ewbank ranked 4th on the all-time coaches victory list with 130. He is the only coach ever to win World Championships in both the NFL (Baltimore 1958-59) and AFL (New York 1968). Two of the most important games in NFL history were the sudden death victory in the 1958 championship, and the Super Bowl III win by the Jets.

Ewbank joined the Jets in 1963 as head coach and GM after serving as head coach of the Colts from 1954-1962. The New Yorkers shocked the world by defeating Ewbank's former team, the Colts 16-7 (the 1st victory for the AFL in the Super Bowl).

Ewbank coached the Jets through 1973 before retiring. He has worked with some of the game's greatest legends including Joe Namath, Don Maynard, Paul Brown, Otto Graham, Johnny Unitas and Raymond Berry.

JOE NAMATH

QUARTERBACK (1965-76)

Joe Namath, "superstar", is an apt description for this Jets quarterback. He was a player who transcended the playing field to become a household name and put a whole league on the map, the AFL. Namath enjoyed a sparkling career and led the Jets to what experts call one of the greatest upsets in sports history when he guided the team to a 16-7 win over the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III on Jan. 12, 1969.

Despite having five knee operations, Namath was one of the game's great quarterbacks and one of its most prolific passers. He was the first player to throw for more than 4,000 yards doing it in a 14-game season (1967). He still holds most of the Jets' passing records and for his pro career completed 1,886 of 3,762 passes for 27,663 yards and 173 TD.

Namath's 1965 signing gave the Jets and the AFL the credibility they needed and started the building to the Super Bowl championship. His legendary Alabama coach Bear Bryant said, "Joe Namath is the greatest athlete I have ever coached."

Namath was elected to the Hall of Fame on January 29, 1985.

DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER (1960-72)

At the time of his retirement, Don Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. Maynard caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) for 88 TD. His yardage still ranks 4th all-time and his number of catches is 7th.

Maynard was a four-time AFL All-Star and is a member of the All-Time AFL team chosen by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He went over the 100-yard receiving mark in 50 games (still an NFL record). The El Paso, TX native joined the AFL in 1960 and was the first Titan to sign a contract.

His most memorable game was the 1968 AFL Championship in which he caught six passes for 118 yards and two TD (including the game-winner) to help put the Jets into the Super Bowl.

The Texas Western (now known as the Univ. of Texas at El Paso) alumnus was enshrined into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 8, 1987.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 29, 1968—SHEA STADIUM

NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Daryle Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969—MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17 1/2 point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF
Dec. 20, 1969—SHEA STADIUM
KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jets 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only TD of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incompleteness and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

1981 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1981—SHEA STADIUM

BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out.

The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 50-yard TD to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left.

The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored 2 quick TD and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to go. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF
JAN. 9, 1983—CINCINNATI RIVERFRONT STADIUM
NEW YORK 44, CINCINNATI 17

The Jets mixed up solid and hard hitting football with a measure of razzle dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in round one of the NFL Super Bowl Tournament. The game was highlighted by Freeman McNeil's 202 yards rushing, the 3rd highest in playoff history, a TD pass from McNeil and a 98-yard INT for a TD by Darrol Ray to secure the win. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again, when the Jets' defense might have made the play of the day. Nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the J1 and with McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered. McNeil was the "cannon" being shot by Richard Todd 22 times for 202 yards and one TD.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF
JAN. 15, 1983—LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM
NEW YORK 17, L.A. RAIDERS 14

The Jets sprung upset number two in the 2nd round of the Super Bowl Tournament, beating the Raiders to enter the AFC championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard TD run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last 3 minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard TD pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy FG, but the Raiders came storming back in the 2nd half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Plunkett at the LA27 with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a Freeman McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Then Mehl made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP
JAN. 23, 1983—MIAMI ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI 14, NEW YORK 0

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0 to earn a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game, which saw a total of 12 turnovers, with three interceptions, returning the final one 35-yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries due to the footing. It was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0 at halftime. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.

1985 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF
DEC. 28, 1985—GIANTS STADIUM
NEW ENGLAND 26, NEW YORK 14

New England came out on top 26-14 in a game that saw the Jets self-destruct. The Jets committed 4 costly turnovers which led to 17 Patriots points. New England, which went on to win the AFC championship, played an almost flawless game with no turnovers and only 1 penalty. The Jets were ahead 7-6, and driving late in the 2nd quarter when Ken O'Brien was intercepted on the 7-yard line. New England came back with a TD pass from Tony Eason to Stanley Morgan on a blitz 6 plays later. O'Brien suffered a concussion on the final play of the half on an Andre Tippett sack and would only play the first series of the 2nd half. Before Pat Ryan could relieve him though, New England added a FG and then scored a TD when the ensuing kickoff was fumbled by Johnny Hector and returned 15-yards by Johnny Rembert. With the Jets trailing 23-7, Ryan came in and directed a TD drive.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Dec. 28, 1986—GIANTS STADIUM

NEW YORK 35, KANSAS CITY 15

Joe Walton started Pat Ryan to give the team an emotional lift and it got just that from Ryan plus a key running play and a 3-TD passing performance. The club also received Freeman McNeil's 135-yard rushing performance to spark the Jets' first home playoff win since 1968. Trailing 6-0, Ryan ran a QB draw for 24 yards from the KC33 on a 4th & 6 play to set up the Jets' go ahead TD. On the 1st down of the ensuing series, the Jets defense forced a KC fumble and Ryan concluded a 12-play, 47-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to McNeil. Just prior to the half, Ryan hit Al Toon with a TD pass for a 21-6 halftime edge. The Jets nailed the victory on the 1st play of the 2nd half when Kevin McArthur swiped a Todd Blackledge pass and dashed 21 yards for a 28-6 margin. The Jets' defense allowed a season low 241 yards total offense and had 2 sacks, 2 INT and 1 FR.

1986 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Jan. 3, 1987—CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 23, NEW YORK 20 (2 OTs)

In the 3rd longest game in NFL history (77:02), Cleveland staged an incredible comeback to send the game into OT before Mark Moseley's 27-yard FG advanced the Browns to the AFC Championship game. With Pat Ryan at QB, the Jets jumped on top 7-0 following a flea-flicker 42-yard TD pass from Ryan to Wesley Walker. Ryan was forced to leave the game in the 2nd quarter with a groin injury and was replaced by Ken O'Brien. Meanwhile, the Jets defense was outstanding holding the Browns to just 10 points and 302 total yards until late in the 4th quarter. Immediately after a Jerry Holmes interception, the Jets took a 20-10 lead on Freeman McNeil's 25-yard TD with 4:14 remaining in regulation. Kosar led the Browns 68 yards to set up Kevin Mack's one-yard run to make the score 20-17 with 1:57 left. Cleveland's defense forced the Jets to punt with :51 left before Kosar's 37-yard pass to Webster Slaughter to the 5-yard line set up the tying 22-yard FG. The Jets got a 2nd life when Moseley missed a 23-yard FG 6:06 into OT, but he redeemed himself by kicking the winning 27-yard FG on a first-and-goal play from the J9.

1991 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Dec. 29, 1991 - Houston Astrodome

HOUSTON 17, NEW YORK 10

The Jets returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1986 and came close to registering an upset win at Houston. Trailing 17-10 with only :20 left at the H47, the Jets were unsuccessful in their attempts to tie the game on 2 Hail Mary passes, the last of which was intercepted to end the game. The game started with Houston taking the opening drive 80 yards in 16 plays for a 7-0 lead. After Erik McMillan's INT halted the Oilers' next drive, the Jets tied the game on Al Toon's 1st TD of the season, a 10-yarder from Ken O'Brien. Warren Moon tossed his 2nd TD pass of the game to Earnest Givens to give the Oilers a 14-10 halftime lead. Three key plays would doom the Jets in the second half. After taking the opening drive of the third quarter down to the H7 in 12 plays, O'Brien's pass intended for Mark Boyer was picked off by Bubba McDowell at the H3. Houston then drove 62 yards in 14 plays for a 53-yard FG to go ahead 17-10. On the Jets' next drive attempting to tie the game from the H3, Brad Baxter was stopped on 3rd and 1 for no gain, and then Freeman McNeil was halted on 4th and 1. The Jets got another shot when Lonnie Young's hit forced Moon to fumble at the H34 with 4:59 left, but the Oilers' defense stopped the Jets on 4 downs. The Jets' defense played extremely well holding the high-powered Houston offense to just 17 points while registering 4 sacks (2 by Mo Lewis), 2 FF and 1 INT. Toon tied for the 2nd most catches by a Jets' WR in a playoff game with 8-96-1 TD.
